3. personal goals for this year

For this year, I've done a lot of things that I didn't know. For example I didn't know English language very well, but now I'm on pre-intermediate level, I've learned how to play basketball, I've a lot of friends, I'm earning money and I'm proud of this.

In the next year, I want to have a lot of friends (more than I already have), I want to develop my English language to advanced level, that's my main goal for the next year, and I want to develop my skills at sports like football, or volleyball, because when I see... I like to play football, or volleyball, I feel relaxed. So that's all my personal goals.
